About the Salesian Sisters
The Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco are a Catholic religious congregation devoted to serving young people, families, and communities through education, faith formation, and compassionate service.

Job Overview
We are seeking a compassionate, dependable, and attentive Home Care Provider to assist with daily living activities and provide a safe, comfortable, and supportive home environment for our sisters. The ideal candidate will be patient, respectful, nurturing, and understanding of the unique needs of elderly individuals, particularly those experiencing dementia or memory-related challenges.

Responsibilities
The role involves providing hands-on personal care, companionship, supervision, and assistance with everyday routines while promoting dignity, independence, and quality of life.

- Assist with waking up and getting to bed.
- Help with getting dressed, grooming, and personal hygiene.
- Assist with bathroom visits and toileting needs.
- Provide support with showers & bathing.
- Assist with changing clothes and maintaining personal cleanliness.
- Assist with serving meals.
- Monitor that meals are eaten and adequate fluids are consumed.
- Provide a reassuring and consistent presence, especially for individuals living with dementia.
- Provide gentle reminders, reassurance, and redirection when needed.

- Be attentive to changes in mood, behavior, or physical condition and communicate concerns appropriately.
- Keep each sister's bedroom and personal living areas clean, tidy, and organized.
- Make beds and change linens as needed.
- Assist with laundry, folding, and putting away clothing.
- Clean and maintain bathrooms and shared spaces used by the sisters.
- Keep personal belongings organized and ensure the home remains safe, sanitary, and comfortable.
